

Bringing Up Great Kids: Parenting After Family Violence

Bringing Up Great Kids: Parenting After Family Violence is a six week program that supports parents to:

- Rebuild trust with with their and others that may have been jeopardised by the violence,
- Respond to secrecy which may have accompanied the violence,
- Bring playfulness and fun back into relationships.

To register

Please note: Pre-interview required before commencement

Dates: Wednesdays 13th August - 17th September

Time: 10- 12:00pm

Location: Bruce Street Community Hall, 22 Bruce Street,
East Maitland

Childcare and morning tea provided